Helpful Hints

- Bond values and color codes may change each month.
- Savings Bonds are always considered to be purchased on the first day of the month.
- To maximize your earnings, redeem bonds just after interest is posted on the first day of the month.

Color Code Key

- Red This bond has reached final maturity and will no longer earn interest. The accrued interest must be reported for tax purposes in the year the bond reaches final maturity, unless the interest has already been reported.
- Yellow This bond will stop paying interest within the next year.
- Green Interest was added to this bond on the first of this month. If you wish to redeem the bond, now would be a good time.
- Tan Interest will be added to this bond on the first of next month. If you wish to redeem the bond, it's a good idea to wait until next month so as to collect the maximum interest.
- Blue This bond was purchased within the past five years. If redeemed within five years of purchase, a 3-month interest penalty will be assessed.
- White This bond is earning interest, and has no particular cautions or notes at this time.

Our EXCLUSIVE color-coding system will teach you:

-  The best months to redeem your bonds, and when to avoid cashing them!
-  Which bonds have stopped earning interest, and what your options are now!
-  When your bonds have a penalty for cashing them in, and when they don't!
-  And Much, Much, MORE!!

Our 100% Guarantee:
 If you are not completely satisfied with your personalized bond statement, simply return the original within 10 days for a complete refund of your purchase price!

Finally, An Easy-To-Read Book That Will Help You Truly Understand Your Savings Bonds!

Author Brian Kurtz has been helping confused Savings Bond owners find answers to their questions for over a decade. As a financial planner and member of the Society of Certified Senior Advisors, he has helped bond holders nationwide to properly value their portfolio.

For years, his popular seminars have shown people how to make smart decisions on their bonds, from proper registration to the right time to cash in, how to avoid paying extra taxes, and much more.

Since 1999, Brian has hosted his own weekly radio program, "Money Matters", which is heard by tens of thousands of listeners every Saturday morning. Now, you can use Brian's years of knowledge and experience on the topic of U.S. Savings Bonds to help you make smart decisions with your own bonds!

"The section on cashing bonds at the right time saved me much more than the cost of the book. Thanks."

--Dick K., W. Des Moines, IA

"A clear and concise read that covers the history of bonds, as well as pertinent modern-day information. This book is sure to be useful to generations of bond-owners."

--Rob W., Cincinnati, OH
